

We don't believe cell phones should be allowed to be used aboard airborne aircraft. We can't think of a worse nightmare than listening to a one-sided, loud conversation for the duration of any flight. We want to read, sleep or otherwise be left in peace and do not wish to have our "space" taken by non-stop talkers. It's like torture you can't escape.